

Marketing Internship at a Vacation Rentals Agency in Berkeley, CA

Host Company ID: I-0010331

Internship Duration: 3-12 months (unpaid)

Company:

Founded in 2010, our privately funded startup reached profitability in 2014 and has become something akin to a hotel chain for vacation rentals.

Working with property owners and managers, we manage a total of 31,000 properties, sending them confirmed guests on a commission basis.

Our partners include companies like trip advisor, Airbnb, and booking.com

Interns would work in close cooperation with their supervisor and our Director of Marketing at our US office, which has a total of 15 employees. We also have an office in Indonesia.

Internship Positions:

- Marketing
- Data Entry / IT / Content Management
- Business Development
- Finance

Requirements:

We are looking for qualified interns with advanced English skills who can take on projects independently and are happy to prove themselves in a startup environment where they can make a difference.

Ideally, candidates have knowledge of content management and an eye for the aesthetics of Marketing. They should also be familiar with data entry and spreadsheets.

Benefits for the Intern:

Casual, fun work environment. Sodas and snacks stocked in the kitchen. We also have experience in hosting international interns and assist our interns getting settled by providing advice about housing in the area.
