

International Tax Accountant Internship at a Fiscal Advice Company in New York, NY

Host Company ID: I-0073617

Internship Duration: 3-12 months (paid)

Company:

We are a New York City based tax consulting firm with a healthy blend of European and U.S. tax attorneys and CPAs who provide our European inbound clientele with highest standards of tax planning, tax compliance and accounting services. Our professionals always seek to create and preserve value for our clients by understanding their strategic and personal goals, and to help them plan for and achieve those goals.

Internship Position:

Interns will have intense exposure to our work as we:

- Run client engagements from start to finish, including planning, directing, and completing tax projects;
- Deliver a full range of tax compliance services including tax research, tax preparation, technical memoranda and client correspondence;
- Represent high net worth individuals before the IRS, including but not limited to voluntary disclosure cases (OVDI) and FBAR filings;

- Structure transfer of wealth in an international setting, including trust and estate work;
- File partnership returns (domestic and international partners) as well as identify PFICs;
- Identify application of double tax treaties in complex tax cases;
- Draft articles on groundbreaking international tax questions for German language tax publications and/or our own regular newsletter.

Interns will be assigned to a “tax team” and work closely with the respective associates and the manager on that team on all client affairs that team is involved in. Any work will definitely always circle around issues in the international tax arena.
