

6 month / permanent Role

| | |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Location | Centrally located in Putney |
| Length of Internship | Minimum 6 months, option of long-term employment |
| Internship Title | Researcher / Head Hunter |
| German Language Level | 5 = fluent |
| English Language Level | 5 = fluent |
| Company Description | The company is a global recruitment business sourcing Enterprise Technology staff. You'll be working at stylish warehouse conversion office in Putney with around 60 staff in the business. The office is 2 minutes' walk from East Putney tube / 10 minute-walk from Putney train station You will receive a comprehensive training & coaching in the identification, acquisition and placement of cutting edge technology candidates into high profile roles throughout Germany, Switzerland and the UK. |
| Sample Projects | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Market mapping of potential candidates & clients via LinkedIn, Xing and Google searches. - Attracting candidates & clients via email marketing, social media and telephone calls. - Detailed screening of candidates by telephone before submission to clients. - Drafting and sending of email marketing campaigns to attract new candidates. - Attending client meetings to establish the exact skills required & timescales. |

Internship in London: Head Hunter in a Global Recruiting Business

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Required Skills & Experiences | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Excellent German verbal & written skills. - Ideally 6 months+ of sales. Telesales, or B2B sales experience - Preferably a degree background in Sales & Marketing, Business or Human Resources - However we will hire solely based on personality & cultural fit. - Highly organized, intelligent and inquisitive - with keen eye for detail. - Motivated and enthusiastic to learn about all aspects of the business & sales. |
| Benefits for Intern | After completing the internship you could be offered a full-time Trainee Researcher / Head-hunter position for the German & Swiss marketplace. This is a paid internship: £13,200 per year for initial internship (between £25k if offered a permanent role + Commission) Realistic OTE of £40-60k in Year 2 |

Your Personal Contact

If you are interested in this position, please contact Nadine Arlt in the European Ayusa-Intrax office in Berlin: +49 30 84 39 39 61, narlt@intrax.de